The short answer is that while no company gives away solar panels to own for free, there are absolutely ways to get a system installed on your roof with $0 out of pocket.

Riding this historic trend, some are even claiming they can bring you in on a deal of lifetime: free solar panels. Sound too good to be true? That is probably because it very well may be. ...

There's no such thing as free solar panels or free government solar programs. Most "free" offers are actually leases, power purchase agreements, loans or scams.

Companies that offer "free" solar panels are typically offering solar lease agreements, so you can reap the benefits of solar-powered electricity without dealing with the upkeep and...

You can install solar panels on your roof with no upfront cost by signing a lease or PPA or taking out a $0-down loan. Each financing option has different trade-offs in terms of savings, ...

There is no such thing as free solar panels, and there is no such thing as a no-cost solar program. If you're hearing about "free" or "no-cost solar programs," you're likely being fed a cheap ...

Getting "free" solar panels might only mean you won't be charged upfront for equipment. Expect to pay for them later on. Companies offering "free" solar panels may require you to sign a...

There are zero upfront investment or upkeep costs associated with a PPA, so in that sense, the solar panels are "free." Similar to a solar lease, potential long-term savings are much ...

Are "free" solar panels really free? Except for very rare cases, it's unlikely that you'll be able to install solar panels at no cost whatsoever or that the government is "giving them away."
